

ITC Forest schools Level 3, Forest Schools Leader
 Study programme

Day 1	Day 2	Day 3	Day 4	Day 5	Day 6	Day 7	Day 8
Seaton Burn			Brockwell Woods
Classic Forest School Activities	My role in Forest Schools Introduction to shelter building; Tarp shelters	Risk Assessment & management	Big shelter building: natural shelters More classic Forest Schools construction activities	Forest schools tools and green woodwork Cleaning and maintaining tools	Tools part 2: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Whistles • Necklaces • Clipboards and more 	Assessment throughout the day Individual time for planning/portfolios Bring your laptop?	The perfect Forest Schools site
The Forest Schools approach Packed lunch	An introduction to tools	Temporary fires Pooled lunch	Kelly Kettles Packed lunch What's in your Forest Schools kit bag?	Fire pit lunch Leaving a site after a fire	Fire lighting and management The bake off challenge! (Dutch ovens)	Packed lunch	Crafty packed lunch
Classic Forest Schools Craft	Introduction to fire lighting and permanent fires Soup lunch	Supporting child led play in Forest Schools (The Gruffalo)	Getting to know your woodland	Forest Schools themes & topics Planning your 6 sessions	Classic Forest Schools eco-games and activities	Classic Forest Schools Outdoor Art and Sculpture	Woodland management & a plan for your site
The benefits of Forest Schools	Why is there a need for FS? The impact of Forest Schools on the environment The role of the FS Leader/Instructor	Key principles and benefits of play The cycle of success and its links to developing emotional intelligence	Creating a Forest Schools Handbook Planning time Forest Schools: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Policies • Procedure • Communication 	Evaluating Forest Schools sessions Monitor the impact of Forest Schools on individuals	Forest Schools activities/project that develop an environmental awareness	Superb Forest Schools	Forest schools equipment & budgets
Portfolio 1: time to make notes and ask questions	Portfolio 1: time to make notes and ask questions	Portfolio 2: Looking ahead to collating evidence & assessment	Introducing Portfolio 3	Portfolio 3: Keeping it simple	Looking ahead to practical assessment day Best practice guide!	Mapping your skills	Course Evaluation

 Additional resources for the course can be found at: atneforestschool.wordpress.com